

Lomita Man, Riviera Woman Win Honors in Art Exhibit

A Lomita man and a Hollywood Riviera woman captured top honors in painting last Sunday when a tea opened the 24th Annual Spring Show of the San Pedro Art Association.

Alvin J. Beller of Lomita walked off with first prizes in both the oil and water color divisions. "Red Mountain," done in oils, and "New Orleans Patterns," a watercolor, were judged best of the paintings exhibited.

World Work of YW Topic for Tuesday Tea

What the YWCA is doing abroad will be told Tuesday, May 4, at a 2 p.m. tea in the home of Mrs. A. W. Warnock.

Mrs. Otis Blackstone, publicity chairman, announced this week. Speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Bartlett B. Heard of Berkeley, a member of the National Board and the World's Council of the YWCA. She has recently returned from the Council Meeting of the World's YWCA in Switzerland and a tour of YWAs in the Middle East, so she will have a first-hand picture of the world-wide aspects of this international organization, Mrs. Blackstone said.

Reservations may be made by calling the Harbor District YW at Terminal 2-7255.

Mrs. Garrity Returns from Eastern Trip

Returning to their home at 1327 Acacia Ave. this week after a three-week stay in Chicago, Ill., were Mrs. William J. Garrity and her daughter, Marjelle.

The pair visited Mrs. Garrity's mother and father, the late J. Burneys, at River Forest, a suburb of the Eastern metropolis. Accompanying them were Mrs. Garrity's sister, Mrs. Eugene McGovern and her daughter, Kittle, of Pacific Palisades. Among the highlights of their trip was the birth of a new son to another sister, Mrs. William Kolinger, who formerly made her home in Torrance. The infant arrived Mar. 29, weighing 6 lbs. 11 oz., and has been named William Arthur. He has one brother, 18-month-old Joseph John.

Parent Class Hears Panel On Jealousies

Jealousies and rivalries as they occur within the family provided subject matter for a symposium sparking the adult education class of the Torrance Co-operative Nursery School last Monday night.

Mrs. William Treiger discussed reasons for jealousies, saying that they are more likely to arise when the child is troubled and unhappy. He must be shown that there is plenty of love for all, she said.

Mrs. Don West told methods for treating jealousies, while Galen Truesdell talked of rivalries between men and women in the business and social world.

How tension manifests itself in the school child and the ways he can be prepared, for the ar-
